PROFILE

Information Technology Management student at UADE (2nd year, evening in-person classes). I build full-stack projects end to end: single-page apps in React/Next.js and TypeScript, REST APIs in Python/FastAPI, and relational databases (PostgreSQL, SQLite), with automated tests and deployments. I work with Claude and other LLM tools every day to prototype, review, test and document, and I always verify the result myself. I am looking for a first junior software engineering role where I can ship real features and learn from an experienced team.
